CHAMPAGNE & SPARKLING WINE

CHAMPAGNE GARDET

Gardet was established in 1895 by Charles Gardet in Chigny-Les-Roses, in the heart of Montagne de Reims. In 2007 the Prieux family bought the estate, taking this Champagne house to another level. With 5 hectares of Premier Cru vineyards around their home village, this is a highly reputable producer with a superb range of Champagnes. After owner Christophe Prieux's recent visit to Biggin Hall Hotel, three of his Champagnes feature on this list, his Brut Tradition, Brut Reserve and Premier Cru. They age their wines much longer than is required, and the higher proportion of reserve wine in their blends has marked their house style and is the key feature of Champagne Gardet. Their expertise, skill and patience produces wines that are the perfect balance between freshness and full-bodied consistency.

AVONDALE ESTATE

Avondale are a superb, family-owned estate based in the Paarl region of South Africa's Cape Winelands. Following owner Johnathan Grieves' recent visit to Biggin Hall Hotel, a selection of his wines feature in our range.

Certified Organic and Biodynamic, the Avondale team are at the forefront of exceptional, sustainable winemaking. Committed to promoting life, and with a healthy ecosystem brings outstandingly good wines.

One of Avondale's best known, eco-friendly ways of vineyard management are their Guardians of the Vines, Jonty's Ducks. Picked up from the boarding house at breakfast time, these excitable ducks waddle onto the Duck-Mobile for the day in the vineyards, where they patrol to find and eat snails which would otherwise damage the vines. Combine these methods with the serious talent of the winemaking team, and the result is a range of fantastic wines.

46.	Qvevri, Avondale - Paarl, South Africa  	70.00

As it ages in the clay it brings a beautiful brightness of fruit and minerality to the wine. The Qvevri fits into Avondale's slow winemaking philosophy and in this light characterful wine you will experience the unbridled grape flavour of our wines.
